

AASD Awards 2018 - Open for nomination

Dear AASD members,

Thank you very much for your continuous support to AASD. We are pleased to announce that the AASD awards 2018 are open for nomination. This year two awards, the Eung Jin Kim Award for Excellent Activities for Diabetes in Asia and the Boniface J. Lin Award for Outstanding Contribution to Diabetes Education in Asia are newly introduced. As a member of AASD, you are encouraged to nominate outstanding candidates. Please be aware that the deadline is November 30th, 2017.

Sincerely,

AASD office

AASD awards:

- The Yutaka Seino Distinguished Leadership Award
- The Masato Kasuga Award for Outstanding Scientific Achievement
- The Xiaoren Pan Distinguished Research Award for Epidemiology of Diabetes in Asia
- The Eung Jin Kim Award for Excellent Activities for Diabetes in Asia
- The Boniface J. Lin Award for Outstanding Contribution to Diabetes Education in Asia

Nomination process:

- The application must be submitted using the AASD awards application form.
- The application must be submitted by members of AASD.
- A letter of nomination (less than 400 words) signed by a nominator with not more than 2 co-signers is acceptable.
- Nominees are requested to submit their CV and publication highlights.
- The application form and supporting documents should be submitted to the AASD office: office@aa-sd.org, via e-mail before November 30th, 2017.

For detailed information about each award and download the forms, please visit the AASD website (<http://www.aa-sd.org/awards/index.html>).